Final Opportunities to Return Voted Ballots

Don't wait – return your voted ballot right away! Remember U.S. embassies and consulates are not polling places; same-day in-person voting is not available outside the United States. The majority of states require voted ballots to reach local election officials by the close of polls on Tuesday, November 8. U.S. citizens who want to participate in the 2016 U.S. elections should already have returned their absentee ballots to their local election officials.

Never received your ballot? If you registered to vote and requested an absentee ballot prior to your state's registration deadline, but have not yet received your ballot, complete and return a Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot to ensure your vote reaches election officials by your state's deadline. If your regular ballot arrives later, complete and return it as well. Your Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot will only be counted if your regular ballot does not reach local election officials by your state's deadline. Your vote will not be counted twice.

RETURNING YOUR BALLOT:

October 18, 2016 is the final date to return your paper ballot to your local election officials by Election Day for free via the U.S. embassy/consulate. If you wish to drop off your ballot or have a friend drop it off for you, please place it in the accompanying envelope addressed to your local election officials. Please submit your ballot at the U.S. Embassy on any working Sunday, Monday, Wednesday, or Thursday between 14:00 and 16:00 hours for return to the U.S. via the diplomatic pouch. To enter the U.S. Embassy, you must bring your U.S. passport along with your completed FPCA or ballot. Please note that it can take up to three weeks for mail to reach the U.S. if sent via pouch.

Missed the U.S. embassy shipment deadline? Consider returning your ballot to the United States via an express courier service such as FedEx, UPS, or DHL or electronically if allowed by your state. Ballots sent to local election officials via express courier service do not receive standard postmarks, so voters using this method should confirm delivery on or before November 8 prior to payment and shipment. Check your state's voting procedures at www.FVAP.gov for guidance.

Returning your Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot by email or fax. If you have previously registered to vote and requested an absentee ballot but it has not yet arrived the following states allow voters to use email or fax to send signed, voted Federal Write-in Absentee Ballots to local election officials: Alaska (fax only), Arizona (contact election official first), Arkansas (fax only), Colorado, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida (fax only), Hawaii (fax only), Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana (fax only), Maine, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska (fax only paper copy must also be mailed), Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma (fax only), Oregon (paper copy must also be mailed), Rhode Island (fax only), South Carolina, Utah, Washington, and West Virginia. Review your state's voting procedures at www.FVAP.gov carefully for guidance.

Returning your ballot by international mail delivery. If using Bangladesh's postal system, be sure to affix sufficient international postage, and allow sufficient time for international mail delivery. Ballots sent via regular international mail from most countries at this late date are unlikely to reach local election officials by state ballot receipt deadlines.

HELP SPREAD THE WORD ABOUT OVERSEAS VOTING. Please help spread the word to your friends, family, and colleagues that now is the time to start thinking about overseas voting. Consider posting to your Twitter, Instagram, Facebook or other social media account that you are an active voter and will be dropping off or mailing your Federal Post Card Application or completed ballot. Use #ProudOverseasVoter to help get the word out about voting.

Need help? You can get in-person assistance from our Embassy Voting Assistance Officers or private U.S. citizen volunteers at the following event(s): American Citizen Services Unit on any working Sunday, Monday, Wednesday or Thursday between 14:00 and 16:00 hours.
