Global UGRAD: Essay:

Instructions

Please Attach to Your Application.

(*) Indicates the question is required.

1. Why would you be a great participant in the Global UGRAD Program? (*)

2. Essay (*)

Please answer one of the following questions in 400-600 words. Write the essay choice you are responding to above your essay. Please attach to your application.

Essay Choice A: Helen Keller once said "Character cannot be developed in ease and quiet. Only through experience of trial and suffering can the soul be strengthened, ambition inspired, and success achieved." Describe a time that you had to overcome a challenge or difficulty in your life. How did you resolve the situation? What did you learn from the experience and how did it change you?

Essay Choice B: According to Ronald Reagan, "The greatest leader is not necessarily the one who does the greatest things. He is the one that gets the people to do the greatest things." Describe an instance where you had to be a leader in your community. What did you learn about yourself, your leadership style, and your capacity to create change?

Essay Choice C: Martin Luther King Jr. said "Everybody can be great...because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love." Describe an instance where you gave back to your community. How will the Global UGRAD program help you continue to serve your community?
